

10 REASONS TO CHOOSE EULER HERMES

When it comes to protecting your business against risk, you need an expert you can trust – someone who understands what you require to trade effectively. With vast experience of supporting businesses just like yours worldwide, we are the perfect partner. Here are 10 great reasons why we'll make your working life easier.

Global presence

With 6,000 employees in more than 50 countries, we have a presence in every industry and work with more than 55,000 ambitious, growing companies. So wherever you do business, we can support you.

A century of experience

For more than 100 years, we've invested in people and financial, operational and market data to feed the powerful predictive analytics we use that improve your business decisions.

Putting your needs first

We adapt our policies depending on your size, sector and export markets. We understand that no two clients are alike, so we provide a broad range of services encompassing credit insurance, debt collection, bonding and guarantees.

Wide industry knowledge

Our goal is to go beyond knowing what's happened, to providing a best assessment of what will happen. With predictive protection, you can better anticipate and adapt to market conditions to trade with confidence and get ahead of the competition.

Excellent customer service

Our aim is to provide the best customer service in the market. To maintain our high standards, we use a range of internal measures such as response times, net-promoter score and satisfaction surveys. Nothing is left to chance.

Data from a global network

As part of the Allianz Group, we can draw on the resources of one of the world's leading insurance providers, which has 86 million customers worldwide.

Early warning system

We monitor all of our customers' accounts to give early warnings of potential threats. This helps our customers to avoid potential losses, saving them time, money and heartache.

No distractions

If one of your clients defaults on a payment, we will handle collections directly, and in the event we cannot collect, will indemnify you. This will enable you to stay focused on growing your business without the frustrating distraction of chasing debts.

Up-to-the-minute information

Our risk data – from macro-economic research to industry trends affecting your sector – is updated constantly and cross-referenced to build an extensive, accurate database that gives us a great insight into the risks you may face.

Quality assured

We are highly rated by credit agencies and we have earned an AA rating from Standard & Poor's, which should give you all the confidence you need to trust us to look after your business.

We would love to hear from you. To learn more about our solutions, get in touch.
